Beautiful Girls.

I wonder when the last time was that you sat in the stillness of a moment and felt precious, wanted, believed in, and heard?

When was the last time your soul felt still, seen, loved, cherished, and embraced? As I have prayed, dreamt, and sought King Jesus for the 2026 Inspire Women's Conference, I have carried you in my heart. I have whispered prayers over you, asked heaven to make a way for these words to reach you at just the right moment. I asked God to remind you through this invitation that He sees you. He hears you. And more than anything, He longs to sit with you, speak to you, and be with you.

This year, our Inspire theme is "Undeniable." Undeniable is not just a word for us. It is a holy invitation. An invitation to return to what is unshakably true: That the call on your life is undeniable. The beauty within you is undeniable. And the love of God for you – unchanging, unwavering – is undeniably real.

As Psalm 93:1-2 declares: "The LORD reigns, he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength; indeed, the world is established, firm and secure. Your throne was established long ago; you are from all eternity." His majesty is eternal, unshakable, and undeniable.

And as Ruth 1:16 reminds us: "Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God." This is the heartbeat of our gathering – to walk together toward the One who is undeniably faithful.

I want to personally invite you to set aside one sacred day to be poured into, to be reminded of who you are and whose you are. A day to rest, to rise, and to remember. This is more than a conference. It's a garden of grace where you are free to just be. It's a sanctuary where your soul can exhale. It's a table prepared just for you, with a seat that has your name on it.

You don't have to come with it all together. Come weary or expectant, uncertain or full of faith. Come with your questions, your dreams, your longing. Just come.

Because there is a place for you here.

Whether it has been a difficult season or a divine one, I believe this day will mark your heart and remind you of the undeniable truth that you are chosen, cherished, seen, known, and deeply loved by your Heavenly Father.

So beautiful, one, will you join us? Let us love on you, encourage you, and lift your eyes back to the One who has never taken His eyes off you.
